

GETTING HERE-GETTING AROUND

VISITOR WELCOMING CENTER at Stage Fort Park

Hough Ave.

Information, restrooms, beaches, concerts, playground, picnic area.

GloucesterMa.com

Just 30 miles from Boston, Gloucester is easy to reach via car or train.

DRIVING

From BOSTON

I-95 North to Peabody. Continue on Rt. 128 North (I-95 will split off to the right) to Gloucester. Travel time approximately 45 minutes.

From NEW YORK & Points South

I-90 East (NY Thruway) to Mass Turnpike.

Exit at I-95 North (exit 14), continue on Rt. 128 North (I-95 will split off in Peabody) to Gloucester. Travel time approximately 4 hours.

From MAINE & Points North

I-95 south to Exit 54 (Route 133 in Georgetown). Follow 133/1A through Rowley, Ipswich, and Essex to Rt. 128 North to Gloucester.

Approximate driving times:

Boston:

45 minutes

Montreal :

6 hours

Hartford, CT:

2 1/2 hours

New York City:

4 hours

Portland, Maine:

2 1/2 hours

TRAIN

MBTA COMMUTER RAIL

Mass. Bay Transportation Authority, Boston

800-392-6100

617-222-3200

Train service begins in Rockport going south to North Station in Boston with passenger stops at the Gloucester and West Gloucester Stations. Approximately one hour from Gloucester to North Station, Boston.

MBTA.com

see map on pages 22-23

AIR

Gloucester is served by Boston Logan International Airport (approximately 45 minutes south) and Manchester, NH Regional Airport (approximately 75 minutes north).

Subway service is available from Logan Airport to North Station, where MBTA trains depart for Gloucester.

TAXI

GLOUCESTER TAXI & LIVERY SERVICE, INC.

212 Main St.

Gloucester 01930

978-283-0099

GloucesterTaxiandLivery.com

BUS Public Transit

Public CATA buses are available throughout the downtown area. Look for bus stop signs.

SEA

HARBORMASTER

19 Harbor Loop

Gloucester 01930

978-282-3012

Harbormaster monitors VHF channel 16

Harbormasters.org/cities/gloucester.shtml

Emergency Information

Dial 911

for local police/fire/
ambulance & Coast Guard

The A.Piatt Andrew Bridge, gateway to Gloucester, is one of two auto bridges to the island.

on the cover:

Whale photo © 7 Seas Whale Watch

inset photos middle, right © Len Burgess, © Charles de Gaspe Beaubien

© Nick Parisi